| Romans: Helping the Gentiles understand God better |   |
|--|---|
| 04/04 – Romans 2:1-2                               | You have No Excuse                            |
| 04/11 – Romans 2:3-5                               | Do you think you will escape God's Judgement  |
| 04/18 – Romans 2:6-11                              | Judged Justly                                 |
| 04/25 – Romans 2:12-16                             | God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus |

You, therefore, have no excuse, you who pass judgment on someone else, for at whatever point you judge another, you are condemning yourself, because you who pass judgment do the same things.

Questions to consider surrounding the text

Read Romans 1:28-32

1. In verses 28-32, Paul emphasizes knowledge and an “unfit mind.” How does an “unfit mind” lead to the behaviors listed in this passage?
2. What would it be like to live in a world where all the people were like those described in verses 28-32, especially those depicted in verse 32?
3. If we are honest with ourselves many small towns are like what we see described in verses 28-32. There is a reason many feel hurt by the things the community knows about them, and won't let them forget. Do you know those who have been hurt by gossip and slander in your own community? How can you bring them the Good News in the midst of that hurt?
4. How do we see the reality of God's present wrath in the world around us? Leviticus 26 might help, as well as Exodus 15:26.
5. Do you think your church community is less prone to this truth-suppression and idol-worship than the surrounding culture? Why do you think this?

After Easter breakfast this year each child will be making their own resurrection garden, with live moss, and tomb with the stone rolled away. Just a great interactive and tangible way for the kids to recreate what we're learning.
