Questions to consider surrounding the text

Main focus: Romans 2:12-16

1. Paul proclaims in verse 11 that God shows no partiality in judgment. How does Paul then explain in 2:12-16 how this will be true for both Jews and Gentiles?
2. Paul says that everyone who doesn't know the law of God will "perish apart from the law," and those who do know it will "be judged by the law" (vs 12). How does he show that there is no defense before God for unreligious people (v 13-16)?
3. How is your conscience defending you today? How is it accusing you?

Dear Church,

Inviting you to meet with the Vision Team immediately following the Worship Service. Please join us on Sunday, May 2nd and hear more how God is asking us to "GO".

A Snack will be provided

*Prayerfully Sent,
Mary, Connie, Ernie and Denise
The Vision Team*

How does verse 16 bring comfort in the midst of a passage about judgment, where all people, Jews and Gentiles, will be judged according to their lives?
