Scripture of the Month Matthew 5:18

Parkman Congregational Church
June 11, 2023

Dietrich Bonhoeffer once penned,
“With every beatitude the gulf is widened between the disciples and the people, and their call to come forth from the people becomes increasingly manifest”.

It is particularly obvious in the blessing on mourners. Jesus means refusing to be in tune with the world or to accommodate oneself to its standards. Such men mourn for the world, for its guilt, its fate and its fortune. While the world keeps holidays they stand aside, and while the world sings ‘Gather ye rose-buds while ye man’, they mourn. They see that for all the jollity on board, the ship is beginning to sink. The world dreams of progress, of power and of the future, but the disciples meditate on the end, the last judgment and the coming of the kingdom. To such heights the world cannot rise. And so the disciples are strangers in the world, unwelcome guests and disturbers of the peace. No wonder the world rejects them.

- John Stott

Bicentennial 1823 – 2023

Our celebration will start off with a Celebration Carnival on Saturday June 17th that is free for all. Then on Sunday June 18th we will join together to worship at 10:30 am. After the worship service we will join together in fellowship, part of which will include opening a time capsule that was put in the ground back in 1998.
