Scripture of the Month

“For truly, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not an IOTA, not a DOT, will pass from the Law until all is accomplished.”

Matthew 5:18

In the Sermon on the Mount we find the most in-depth exposition of the law of God of any in the New Testament. Here Jesus begins to set forth His understanding of the law over against the understanding of the scribes and Pharisees.

As we examine this we will see how the best Jewish scholars were profoundly wrong in how they understood the Law and the Prophets – what we call the Old Testament. The scribes and Pharisees were highly educated and deeply dedicated to understanding and keeping the law. This serves as a warning to us. The Bible is clear enough for any Christian to understand its basic meaning; nevertheless, the Word of God in every generation becomes distorted and misunderstood. These distortions happen not because there is something wrong with the clarity of the Word of God but because there is something wrong with us. We come to the Bible with our minds clouded by sin. We must resist the temptation to read into the Bible something that is not there or try to use the Bible, as Luther said, as a wax nose that we can twist to support our own biases and prejudices. Here our Lord undertakes an important warning about how we are to understand the law of God.
