Interestingly, in this passage we are considering in this chapter, Jesus named one thing He did not come to do. As He continued preparing His apostles for their trial mission, He told them: “Do not think that I came to bring peace on earth. I did not come to bring peace but a sword” (verse 34). This, like the statement is one of the hard saying of Jesus.

As we seek to understand this statement, we should ask ourselves why it seems strange to us that Jesus denied that He had come to bring peace on earth. In other words, why would we expect Him to bring peace? Perhaps one reason was that which happened on the plains of Bethlehem on the night of His birth. After an angel announced Jesus’ birth to the shepherds, an angelic choir appeared and sang, “Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, goodwill toward men!” (Luke 2:14). Likewise, in the upper room on the night when He was betrayed, Jesus said, “Peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you” (John 14:27a). Finally, He is called the Prince of Peace, having been so named by the prophet Isaiah hundreds of years before He was born (Isaiah 9:6). Knowing these things, it is natural for us to assume that one of the key aspects of His mission in the world was to bring peace. But He said that was not so, that He came not to bring peace but a sword.
