SCRIPTURE OF THE MONTH – MATTHEW 22:21b

Parkman Congregational Church

June 8, 2025

Not God's plan for my life
But my life for God's plan
Not God's vision for our church
But our church for God's Vision

Sproul penned in his commentary;

When Jesus received their answer to His question, He said to them, "render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's" (v 21b). the coin bore the image of Caesar, so it belonged to Caesar. As the ruler who had been raised up by God – see Romans 13 – he had the right to ask the people under his rule to render to him that which belonged to him. So, Jesus was saying it was the obligation of the Jews, as much as they despised Caesar and his regime, to pay their taxes. At the same time, however, they were to give God those things that were His: the tithe and obedience in all areas. So, whereas the Pharisees set up and either/or question for Jesus, He gave a both/and answer.

This command is for us, too, of course. As we have seen, the entire Bible supports the payment of taxes. We may not like taxes, but we need to pay them. We are not to defraud the government. And, of course, we always must remember to fulfill our biblical obligations to God. The New Testament sees a distinction between two spheres, the church and the civil magistrate, or the state. The church has been given her task to perform and the state has been given its task to perform. Christians are supposed to support both of those institutions as being ordained by God.
