January 18, 2026

Sproul penned in his commentary;

This statement was as good as a straightforward confession that He was the Messiah. Jesus was acknowledging that the Jewish religious leaders had authority and power in this world, but their authority and power were secondary to His. As soon as Jesus took His seat at the right hand of God, all power in heaven and on earth would be given to Him, and the chief priests and scribes would be subject to His judgment. In short, He was claiming to be not only the Messiah but the King, God Himself.
