Shepherd and Overseer,

Sproul penned in his commentary;

"There are two titles here at the end of 1 Peter 2: "Shepherd" and "Overseer" or, as some translate, "Bishop." Jesus uses the metaphor of the shepherd to define His identity. He describes Himself as "the good shepherd" (John 10:11). He said, "A hireling, he who is not the shepherd, one who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and flees; and the wolf catches the sheep and scatters them" (v. 12). The hireling is not a good shepherd but a bad one. In contrast, Jesus said:

I am the good shepherd; and I know My sheep, and am known by My own. As the Father knows Me, even so I know the Father; and I lay down My life for the sheep. And other sheep I have which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they will hear My voice; and there will be one flock and one shepherd.
(vv. 14–16)

"The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want" (Ps. 23:1).

He is the Good Shepherd who is constantly watching out for the well-being of His sheep.

Jesus confronted Peter by the shore and said, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me?" and Peter responded, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love you." Then Jesus said, "Feed my sheep" (John 21:16–17). Jesus did not ask Peter to entertain His sheep or to poison them. Jesus commanded Peter to feed His sheep."

Back to me for one final comment,

The way Jesus' sheep are fed is through the living and abiding Word of God. This is why the question ought to be asked, have you tasted that the Lord is good?

Celebrating all the Mother's

Scripture of the Month: 1st Peter 2: 24, 25

“He Himself bore our sins in His body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By His wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but now have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.”
