Sproul penned in his commentary;

Here Peter admonishes his readers not only to wear the garment of the righteousness of Christ but also to be clothed in humility: “Likewise you younger people, submit yourselves to your elders. Yes, all of you be submissive to one another, and be clothed with humility, for “God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble” (v. 5). Our entire being is to be covered with the virtue of humility because “God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble.” There is an antithetical parallelism in that quotation. The humble are given grace, which stands in stark contrast to the proud, who meet with the fierce resistance of God. Who can stand against the resistance? Yet when we approach God in spirit of humility, He does not resist us but adds grace upon grace.

Not God's plan for my life
But my life for God's plan
Not God's vision for our church
But our church for God's Vision

Scripture of the Month: 1st Peter 5:5

Likewise, you who are younger, be subject to the elders. Clothe yourselves, all of you, with humility toward one another, for "God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble."

1 Peter 5:5
