Not God's plan for my life
But my life for God's plan

Sproul penned in his commentary concerning 2nd Peter 1:3; "The most frequent Greek word in the New Testament for "power" is dunamis, from which we get the English word dynamite. The power that God works in our soul to bring us to faith is dynamite. It is an overwhelming power. It is no human potentiality realized by the flesh but, as Peter tells us, a divine and supernatural work of God in the soul. Regeneration is a result of the immediate, supernatural work of God in our soul, a work that only God can bring to pass. If you are a believer in Christ, if you have an inclination toward the things of God, at some point in your life you encountered the touch of the divine in your soul. That inclination did not arise from your bosom. It came from the Spirit of God—divine power through the knowledge of the One who called us—and He called us by His glory, by His majestic power. By His righteous activity He has made us alive."
